About Predators

The Happy Chicken Tractor™ can include a chicken-wire floor that will deter predators from entering the enclosure from beneath, but which will still allow your birds to have access to grass and bugs on the ground. You can add the full bottom net yourself. The unit can be electrified for extra protection from predators.

No Tools Required — Just Add Chickens or Ducks

The Happy Chicken Tractor™ from our Little Chicken Factory™ comes to your house in a six-foot long box and weighs about 40 pounds. It is covered with vinyl-coated chicken wire when fully assembled.

The Happy Chicken Tractor has wheels and rolls easily around the yard. Secure it against blow over with the ground stakes (included). The shade cloth is now outdoor canvas. The basic sturdy structure is five feet wide and six feet long and covers 30 square feet of ground. Add your own full bottom netting, nesting boxes, feeder. Comes apart easily when the netting is removed.

Other Chicken Tractors Can't Compare

Sonny—With Chickens. Easy to Move—Secure

The six foot Happy Chicken Tractor can expand to 12-feet in length (Ask for details) and is less than half the cost of many others.
